

“Adam and Eve” Genesis 2-3

At the time when God made the heavens and the earth, no trees or plants grew on the earth, because God had not yet sent the rain; and there was no man to take care of the garden; but a mist rose from the earth and watered the ground.

Then God made man out of dust taken from the ground and breathed into him the breath of life; and man became a living being, and God named him Adam. And God planted a garden in Eden, and out of the ground he made grow all kinds of trees that are pleasant to look at and good for food, also the tree of life and the tree that gives the knowledge of good and evil.

Then God took Adam and put him in the Garden of Eden to farm it and to care for it. And God gave Adam this command: "You may eat all you wish from every tree of the garden, except from the tree that gives the knowledge of good and evil; from this you shall not eat, for if you eat from it you shall surely die."

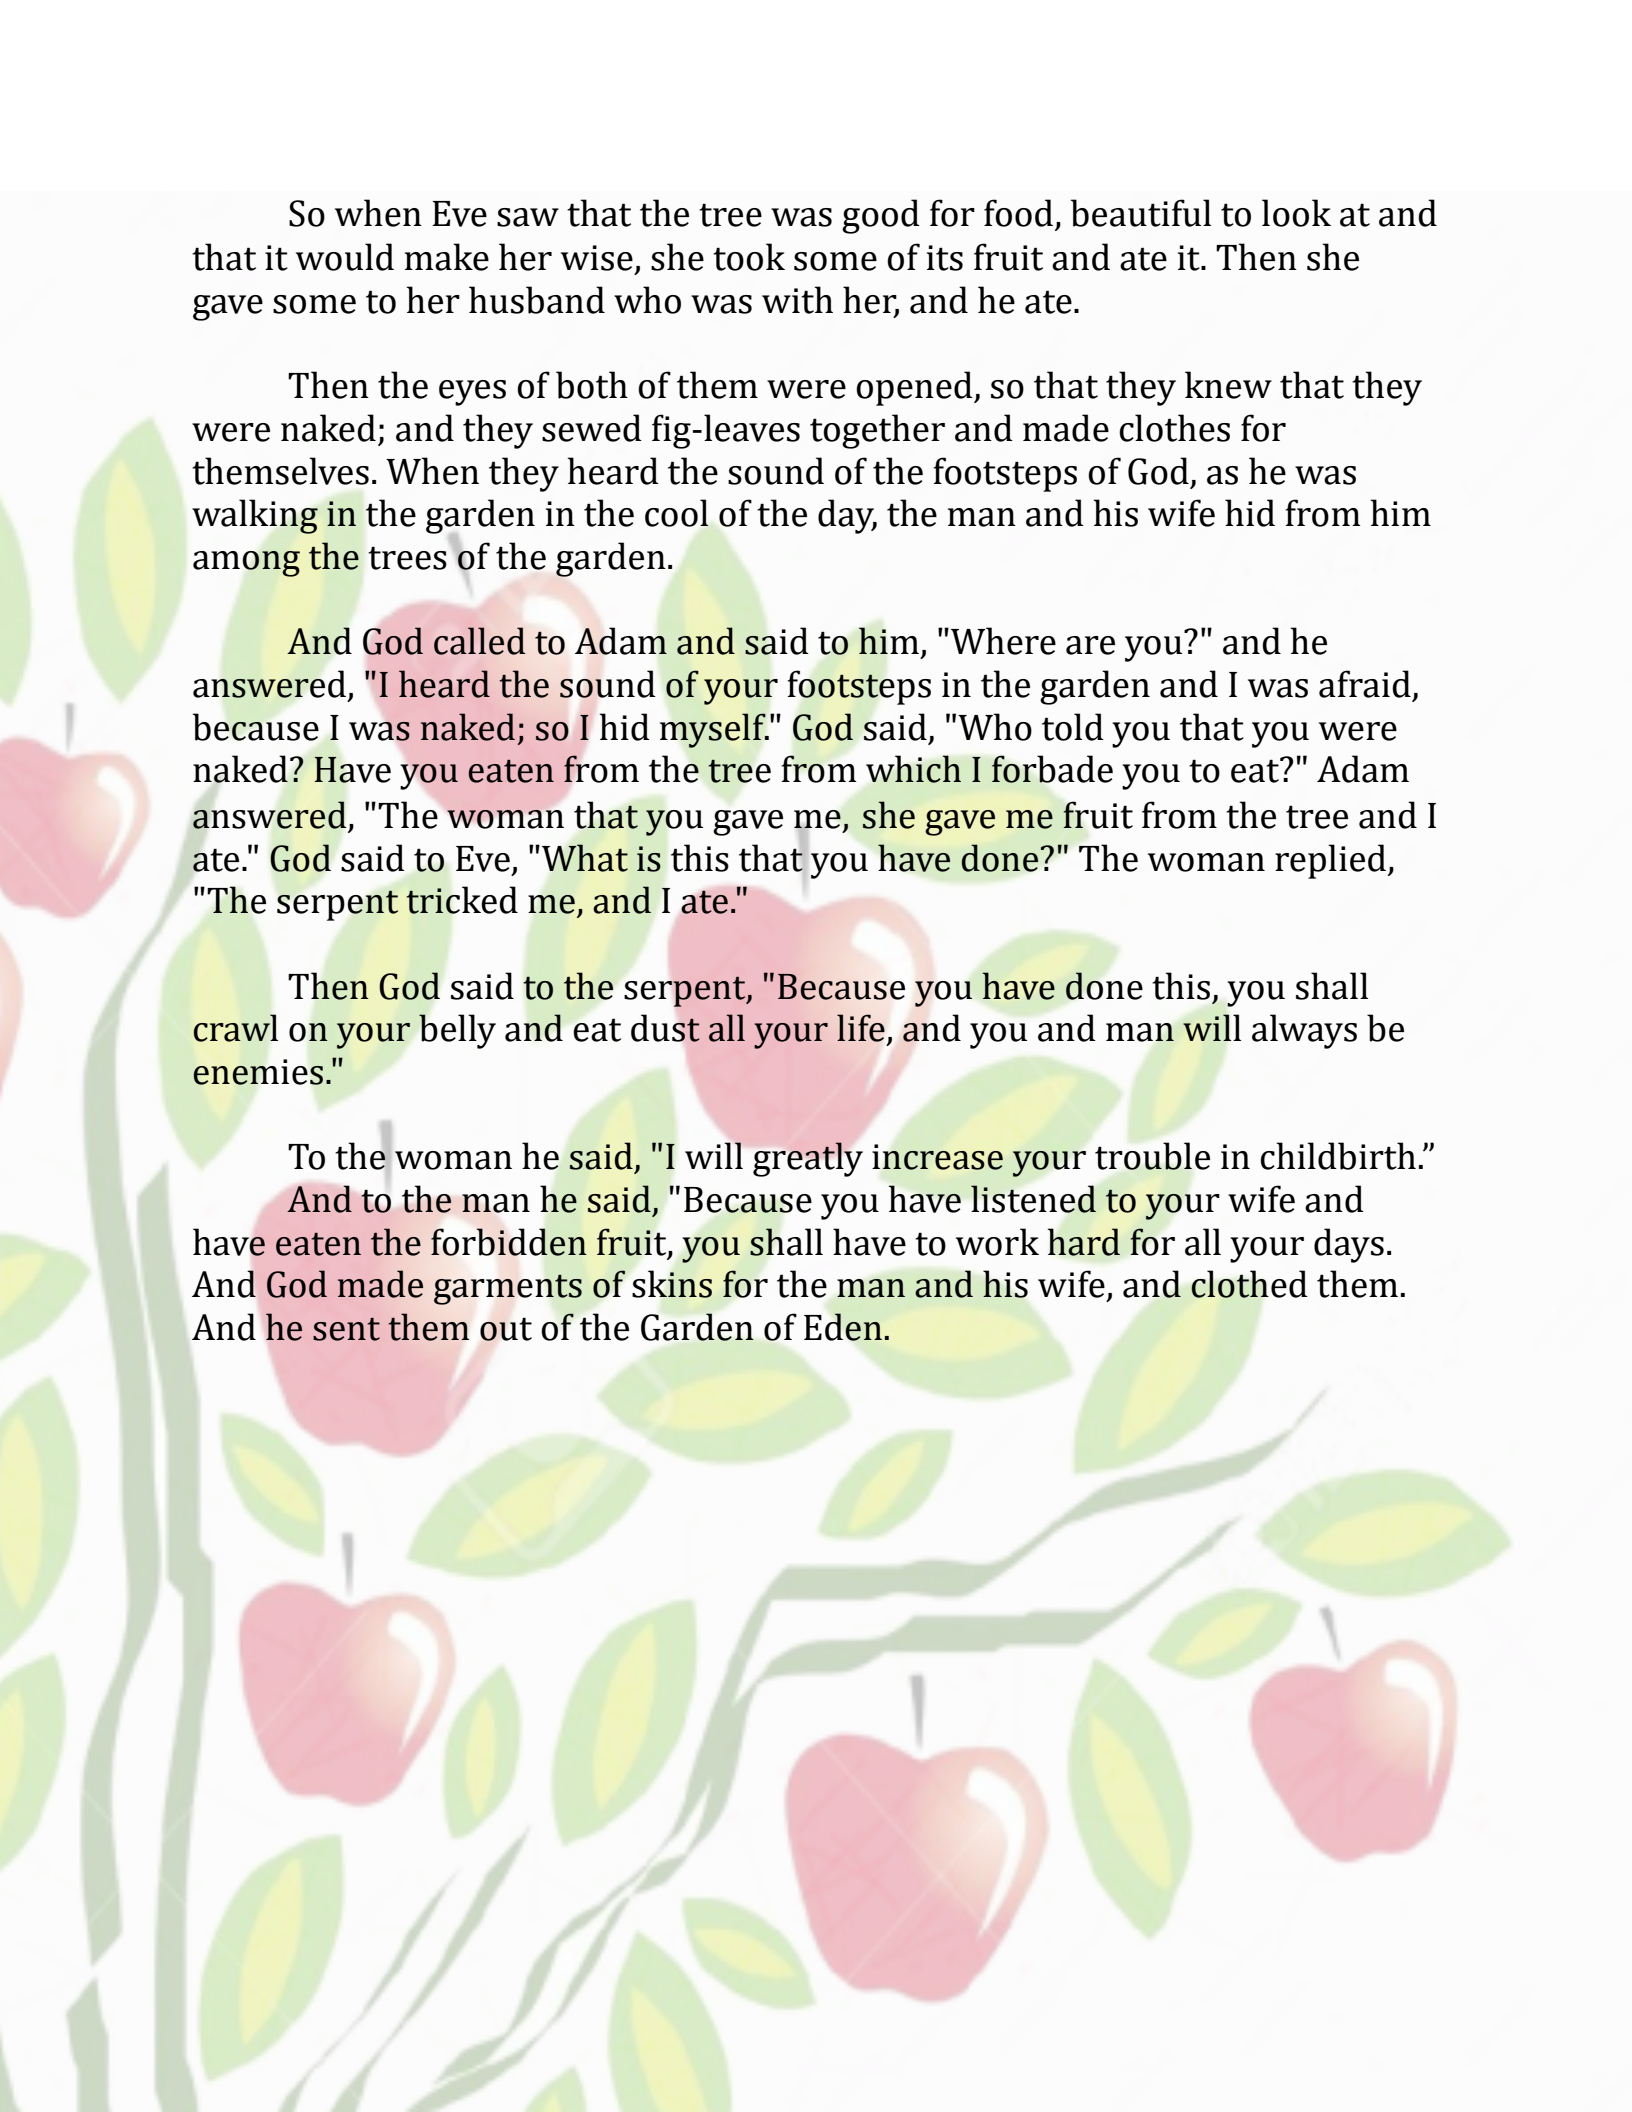

Then God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone; I will make a friend for him." So God brought all the animals to Adam to see what he would name them; and whatever he called each animal, that became its name. But for the man himself there was found no friend for him among the animals.

Then God made Adam fall into a deep, deep sleep; and while he slept, he took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. The rib, which he had taken from the man, God made into a woman and brought her to the man. Then the man said, "Because she was made from my body, she shall be called Woman." Her name was Eve.

“Adam and Eve Disobey”

Now the serpent was more sneaky than any other animal that God had made; and it said to Eve, "Has God really said, 'You shall not eat from any tree of the garden'?" The woman answered, "We can eat the fruit of all the trees of the garden except the fruit of the tree which gives the knowledge of good and evil in the middle of the garden, for God has said, 'You shall not eat its fruit, nor shall you touch it; for if you do, you shall die.'"

Then the serpent said to Eve, "You won't die; because God knows that as soon as you eat the forbidden fruit, your eyes will be opened, and you will know what is good and what is evil."

So when Eve saw that the tree was good for food, beautiful to look at and that it would make her wise, she took some of its fruit and ate it. Then she gave some to her husband who was with her, and he ate.

Then the eyes of both of them were opened, so that they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig-leaves together and made clothes for themselves. When they heard the sound of the footsteps of God, as he was walking in the garden in the cool of the day, the man and his wife hid from him among the trees of the garden.

And God called to Adam and said to him, "Where are you?" and he answered, "I heard the sound of your footsteps in the garden and I was afraid, because I was naked; so I hid myself." God said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree from which I forbade you to eat?" Adam answered, "The woman that you gave me, she gave me fruit from the tree and I ate." God said to Eve, "What is this that you have done?" The woman replied, "The serpent tricked me, and I ate."

Then God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, you shall crawl on your belly and eat dust all your life, and you and man will always be enemies."

To the woman he said, "I will greatly increase your trouble in childbirth." And to the man he said, "Because you have listened to your wife and have eaten the forbidden fruit, you shall have to work hard for all your days. And God made garments of skins for the man and his wife, and clothed them. And he sent them out of the Garden of Eden.

Adam and Eve Puppet Script

(Get the whole family to act this out!)

The Garden of Eden was a beautiful place
All clean and all sparkly with dew.
And Adam and Eve lived in this special spot (Adam and Eve appear center) (Eve left)
With more animals than live in a zoo! (animals appear and noises)

The Lord came to Adam and Eve one fine day. (they look up)
He said, "Since creation is done,
You're free to eat from the trees that you choose,
Go ahead, except for this one!" (tree appears left and stays)

And Adam and Eve saw the one special tree (Eve is next to tree)
Of knowledge of evil and good
And God said, "If anyone eats of its fruit,
He'll die, it's not meant for your food." (they nod)

Now life in the Garden of Eden was fun! (animals appear and play with each other and Adam and Eve)
The lion cubs played with the lambs.
But wait! Look! A sly sneaky snake (snake comes from far left)
Came hissing along through the sand.

The snake hissed and whispered to Eve in the ear. (he does this)
He asked her, Did God set the rules?
Did God really say that you can't eat the fruit
From this tree? Oh, Don't be such fools!"

Then Eve answered back to that devilish snake
Who really was Satan disguised,
"Why, yes! God told Adam and me not to eat (she talks to snake)
The fruit of that tree or we'll die."

"Ha, ha!" laughed the wicked old snake. "That's a lie! (evil voice)
I know what will happen to you.
You'll see whether something is evil or good
When you eat a big bite of that fruit."

Eve thought it was pretty, the fruit sweet to eat, (apple appears by her mouth)
So she listened and took a big bite.
She gave some to Adam and he ate it too (apple moves to Adam)
They did what they knew wasn't right.

As soon as they ate, their eyes seemed to open (they shake heads in fright)
They saw they were naked and bare (they look up and down and around)
They made themselves clothes out of leaves from a fig
They quickly had something to wear.

They heard the Lord walking in the cool of the day
So they hid when heard him come near.
"Where are you, my children?" God called as he walked.
Then Adam spoke out in his fear. (He looks up)

Said Adam, "I heard you and I was afraid
Ashamed I was naked and bare!" (talks up to God)
"Who said you were naked? Did you eat of that tree?
I told you to never eat there."

"The woman named Eve, She gave me the fruit!"
Now God turned to Eve and replied,
"How could you do such a terrible thing?" (she replies, looking up)
"The sly snake, it tricked me!" she sighed.

But then God took the evil that Satan had planned
And changed it, as only God could.
He said, "For this sin, you'll eventually die." (they look down, ashamed)
But wait! Here's a promise for good!" (look up with hope)

One day God will send down his own special son
To love and forgive all our sin.
And He will have victory over this death
So Satan will no longer win!

Adam and Eve Song

(Sung to "The Adam's Family Theme")

Adam & Eve (snap, snap or clap, clap for young children),

Adam & Eve (snap, snap)

Adam & Eve, Adam & Eve, Adam & Eve (snap, snap).

First Adam tilled the garden, then God remembered woman,

Next there was a warning, about a special tree.

Adam & Eve (snap, snap), Adam & Eve (snap, snap)

Adam & Eve, Adam & Eve, Adam & Eve (snap, snap).

Now there was a serpent, a really evil creature,

He whispered to the woman "it's okay to eat the fruit"

Adam & Eve (snap, snap), Adam & Eve (snap, snap)

Adam & Eve, Adam & Eve, Adam & Eve (snap, snap).

So they took a bite, they knew it wasn't right

They hid from God's own sight, He threw the couple out!

Adam & Eve (snap, snap), Adam & Eve (snap, snap)

Adam & Eve, Adam & Eve, Adam & Eve (snap, snap).

Since that dreadful day, the world has been at bay

Through grace we have been saved since Jesus took our place.

Adam & Eve (snap, snap), Adam & Eve (snap, snap)

Adam & Eve, Adam & Eve, Adam & Eve (snap, snap).

Memory Verse

“So as one sin of Adam
led to death, one righteous act
of Christ leads to life.”
